

Ormond Meat Marketing Scholarship

Scholarship Regulations

Focus

Agribusiness

Level of Study

Undergraduate

Purpose

The Ormond Meat Marketing Scholarship encourages students to undertake study that will prepare them for an agribusiness career within the meat industry.

Background

This scholarship is named after Sir John Ormond (1905 - 1995), a long-time chairman of the New Zealand Meat Producers Board.

Value and Tenure

The value of the scholarship is up to $2000 and the tenure is for a single academic year. The scholarship is offered annually as funds permit.

Typical Number on Offer

One scholarship is typically offered each year.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be enrolled in an undergraduate degree in agriculture at Massey University in the year of application. This includes but is not limited to the Bachelor of Agribusiness, Bachelor of Agricultural Science, or Bachelor of AgriCommerce.
- be studying full time

Preference may be given to first year applicants.

Selection Criteria

The selection will be based on:

- academic merit
- the benefit to the applicant and their study in receiving this scholarship, and how well the applicant meets the conditions and intentions of the scholarship

Preference will be given to applicants who can show within their application that they are sincere in following a career path into agribusiness and the meat industry.

The selection panel will also take account of other scholarships and bursaries held by the applicants in seeking an equitable distribution of fund

Selection Panel

The scholarship is awarded by the University Scholarships Committee on the recommendation of the Applied Academic Programmes Scholarships Committee, College of Sciences.

The University Scholarships Committee has the right to refrain from making an award if there are no suitable applicants and its decision is final.

Conditions of the Scholarship

The scholarship may be held in conjunction with other scholarships, bursaries or awards, so long as those scholarships, bursaries or awards permit co-tenure