

Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust Scholarship

Scholarship Regulations

Focus

Veterinary Science.

Level of Study

Undergraduate.

Purpose

To support women undertaking a Bachelor of Veterinary Science.

Background

The Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust (KEECT) is a registered charity which encourages, promotes and advances education for women, whether it is in Research, Professional, Artistic or Creative Activities.

Value and Tenure

The value of the scholarship is determined each year from the interest earned on the capital. In recent years this has been $3,000.

Typical Number on Offer

One.

Eligibility

Applicants must be:

- New Zealand citizens or permanent residents.
- Female.
- enrolled full time in year two or three of a Bachelor of Veterinary Science.

Selection Criteria

The selection will be based on:

- academic merit.
- evidence of good citizenship or community service.
- a statement from the applicant about why they believe companion animals are integral to a healthy society.

Selection Committee

The scholarship is awarded by the University Scholarships Committee on the recommendation of the KEECT. A shortlist of three students will be provided to the KEECT for final selection.

The Committee has the right to refrain from making an award should there be no suitable applicants.

Conditions of the Scholarship

The scholarship may be held in conjunction with other scholarships, bursaries or awards, so long as those scholarships, bursaries or awards permit co-tenure.