Postgraduate.

Purpose

The Leonard Condell Farming Postgraduate Scholarship supports agricultural research. It is open to students undertaking agricultural research.

Background

These scholarships are awarded by the Leonard Condell Farming Scholarship Trust established under the terms of the will of Leonard Condell and administered by Perpetual Guardian. Leonard was a Pukekohe farmer who died in 1974.

Value and Tenure

The annual value of the scholarship is up to $3000. It is offered annually as funds permit and the money is paid in two equal instalments. The tenure is for a single academic year.

Typical Number on Offer

One scholarship is typically offered each year.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- have been born in New Zealand.
- have graduated in science, agriculture or related disciplines (e.g., horticulture, veterinary science, food technology, biotechnology).
- be enrolled in a postgraduate degree at a New Zealand university.
- enter fields of research for the benefit of agriculture in New Zealand.

Selection Criteria

The selection criterion is academic merit.

In making its recommendation, the Applied Academic Programmes Scholarships Committee will take account of other scholarships and bursaries held by the applicants in seeking an equitable distribution of funds.

Selection Committee

The scholarship is awarded by the Trustees of the Leonard Condell Farming Scholarship Trust.

Applicants from all universities are considered by the Applied Academic Programmes Scholarships Committee, College of Sciences, Massey University, which will make a recommendation to the Trustees.

Conditions of the Scholarship

The Trustees have the right to refrain from making an award if there are no suitable applicants and their decision is final.

The scholarship may be held in conjunction with other scholarships, bursaries or awards, so long as those scholarships, bursaries or awards permit co-tenure.

Payment will be made in two instalments upon confirmation of enrolment in semesters one and two, following the official withdrawal dates for these semesters. The second payment will be subject to the recipient passing all their first semester courses.
