

The Albert & Alexis Dennis Donation

Bursary Regulations

Focus

Distance students.

Level of Study

Undergraduate and postgraduate.

Purpose

The Albert and Alexis Dennis Donation is used to assist distance students, male or female, aged 65 years or older, in the payment of fees, books, contact workshops/block courses, examination expenses and other incidental expenses incurred in their distance studies.

Value and Tenure

The amount of each bursary depends on the funds available each year but in recent years has been $1,500.

Typical Number on Offer

One bursary is typically made each year.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be enrolled via distance in all courses taken in the year of application.
- 65 years of age or older at the time of application.

Selection Criteria

The selection will be based on:

- the academic costs to be incurred by the student in the year of application.
- a brief supporting statement.
- Preference may be given to candidates who have a disability. Such candidates should supply a supporting statement from a registered health professional.

Selection Committee

The bursary is awarded by the University Scholarships Committee.

Conditions of the Bursary

The bursary may be held in conjunction with other scholarships, bursaries or awards, so long as those scholarships, bursaries or awards permit co-tenure.