

The Bailey Bequest Bursary

Bursary Regulations

Focus

Financial hardship.

Level of Study

Postgraduate.

Purpose

The Bailey Bequest Bursary supports students who suffer general hardship or unforeseen changes in their financial circumstances during the course of their postgraduate programme of study.

Background

These bursaries were established by Massey University from funds provided by the Bailey Bequest. Walter Henry Bailey was a retired farmer from Wellington. He died in 1928.

Value and Tenure

The value of the bursary is up to $3000 and is awarded as funds permit.

The money is paid in one instalment.

A bursary may be held only once.

Typical Number on Offer

Multiple bursaries are offered each year dependent on funds.

Eligibility

Applicants must be part-time or full-time students of Massey University who are enrolled internally or by distance for a postgraduate programme at any of the Massey University campuses.

Selection Criteria

The selection criterion is evidence of hardship. Applications must be supported by a supervisor, head of department or other academic mentor who is familiar with the applicant's circumstances.

Selection Committee

The scholarship is awarded by the University Scholarships Committee. It has the right to refrain from making an award if there are no suitable applicants and its decision is final.

Conditions of the Bursary

The scholarship may be held in conjunction with other scholarships, bursaries or awards, so long as those scholarships, bursaries or awards permit co-tenure.
