

Women's Suffrage Undergraduate Bursary

Bursary Regulations

Focus

Female

Level of Study

Undergraduate

Purpose

The Women's Suffrage Undergraduate Bursary assists women students who have been taking their first undergraduate degree part time and will complete their current course of study either part time or full time within the current academic year

Background

The bursary is funded from a variety of sources, including a grant from the Massey University Alumni Association and the Status of University Women Advisory Committee in 1993 to mark the centenary of women's suffrage

Value and Tenure

The value of the bursary is up to $2000 with the amount determined each year from the interest earned on the capital.

Typical Number on Offer

Typically, one bursary will be awarded per year and the tenure is one year.

Eligibility

Applicants must be:

- female
- New Zealand citizens or permanent residents
- enrolled in their first undergraduate degree at any of the campuses of Massey University or by distance
- completing an undergraduate degree either part time or full time in the year of application

Selection Criteria

The selection is based on academic merit.

Career or other relevant experience may be taken into account, as may the time spent studying part time.

Selection Panel

The bursary is awarded by the University Scholarships Committee which will include at least one female member.

Conditions of the Bursary

The bursary may be held in conjunction with other scholarships, bursaries or awards, so long as those scholarships, bursaries or awards permit co-tenure.

The money is paid in one instalment.

The University Scholarships Committee has the right to refrain from making an award if there are no suitable applicants and its decision is final

At the discretion of the University all, or part, of the annual interest may be reinvested in order to maintain the value of the capital fund or the value of the award for subsequent years.