

Johannes August Anderson Doctoral Scholarship

Scholarship Regulations

Focus

Agriculture and Horticulture

Level of study

Doctoral

Purpose

The Johannes August Anderson doctoral scholarship financially supports agriculture and horticulture doctoral students.

Background

This scholarship was established under the terms of the will of Johannes August Anderson, a retired farmer.

Value and Tenure

The annual value of the scholarship is up to $3,000.

The scholarship is usually offered annually. The tenure is for a single academic year though recipients can apply again in subsequent years.

At the discretion of the University all, or part, of the annual interest may be reinvested to maintain the value of the capital fund so the scholarship may not be granted each and every year.

Typical Number on Offer

One scholarship is typically offered each year

Eligibility

Applicants must be enrolled full time for a PhD degree in one of the Applied Academic Programme disciplines relevant to agriculture or horticulture (paper prefix of 111, 112, 117, 119, 138, 171, 188, 189, 238 or 239) at Massey University.

Selection Criteria

The selection is based on:

- academic merit
- the benefit to the applicant and their study in receiving this scholarship, and how well the applicant meets the conditions and intentions of the scholarship

The University Scholarships Committee may take account of other scholarships and bursaries held by the applicants in seeking an equitable distribution of funds.

Selection Committee

The scholarship is awarded by the University Scholarships Committee on the recommendation of the Applied Academic Programmes Scholarships Committee, College of Sciences.

The University Scholarships Committee has the right to refrain from making an award if there are no suitable applicants and its decision is final.

Conditions of the Scholarship

The Applied Academic Programmes Scholarships Committee may withdraw or suspend an award at any time if the recipient fails to make satisfactory academic progress.

The scholarship may be held in conjunction with other scholarships, bursaries or awards, so long as those scholarships, bursaries or awards permit co-tenure.
